Hallquist shared that as a commission, Senior Advisory does not need bylaws since all the guidelines from the bylaws are in City Code with the following exceptions: (1) a meeting place is named in bylaws and not city code; (2) a number of members is listed as a quorum in bylaws and not in city code, where a quorum is more than 50% of existing members; and (3) no compensation is listed in bylaws when a stipend is available to commission members who attend 75% of meetings based on city code.

Recommendations from the Commission to update the current code to (1) eliminate the appointment of a Secretary to the Commission and (2) include the Haven.

Motion by Simmons; Seconded by Durbin to eliminate Senior Advisory bylaws and appoint Brenda Schmitz and Laurie Hilgers as Ad Hoc Members to the Commission. Motion passed 6-0.
